

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

Company Policy

The continuing policy of the company is to conduct its operations in such a manner as to ensure, so far as reasonable and practicable, the safety, health and welfare at work of its employees and to prevent risks to the safety or health of others. Also, to comply with all relevant laws and regulations such as the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, and all subsequent amendments including the Work at Height Regulations 2005 and to co-operate with those responsible for enforcing them.

Particular importance is given to the provision of information, instruction, training and supervision necessary for the implementation of this policy and compliance with the Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999. In accordance with these regulations the company has undertaken risk assessments identifying necessary measures to be taken to comply with the employers duties under the "relevant statutory provisions".

The Managing Director, Management and employees have responsibility for implementation of the policy and risk assessments, in accordance with the directions given in this document which will be constantly up-dated as legislation changes.

All employees have a part to play in the implementation of the policy and in particular have a duty to take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves, their fellow employees and anyone else who may be affected by their acts or omissions.

The Managing Director & Directors give their full support to the effectiveness of this policy and its implementation will be monitored and this document will be reviewed on an annual basis.
